In 1977, Billy and Cathy Huddleston combined their love for great food with their love of great friends and opened Butcher Boy’s Smokehouse and Deli in the oldest, and one of the most historical towns in Texas, Nacogdoches!

They earned some serious, statewide bragging rights a few years ago when Wide Open Eats gave them the #1 spot on their “10 Best Burger Joints in Texas,” awarding them the title of “Best Burger in Texas.” The competition was stiff and to earn the title, they had to beat out burger joints in Austin, Corpus Christi, Abilene and Fort Worth.

The appetizing menu offers a wide variety of homemade dishes in addition to their delicious burgers and sandwiches, including: AMAZING chicken fried steaks, special menu items for kids and seniors, as well as many tasty side orders or snacks.

They have a large variety of sausages and all of the recipes originated in Nacogdoches over a hundred years ago. The menu is made from scratch and made fresh every day. Over the years, the restaurant has expanded their services to include catering and a line of seasonings. Butcher Boy’s is definitely a family business and many of the customers have become extended family members over the years.

In 2012, the Huddleston’s granddaughter, Macy Smith, began overseeing the business and still continues to do so today. Billy, also known as Mr. B, passed away in June 2025 and the crew at Butcher Boy’s has made sure that everything remains exactly how he wanted it. “Do the right thing and ALWAYS put people first.”

The Huddlestons thank you for dining with us and we hope to see you and your families many times in the coming years!
