

The Nacogdoches Alumni Association is proud to honor Hollin Haley as our Distinguished Alumnus of 2026.

Hollin Haley is a 2012 graduate of NHS, where she proudly served as Dragonette Drill Team Major. She counts her English teacher Ms. Thomas as a favorite teacher while at NHS. After NHS Hollin graduated from the University of Texas at Austin. She is now a Los Angeles-based writer and producer whose work has stayed rooted in East Texas. She has produced films and series alongside A-listers such as Alec Baldwin, Robert Sean Leonard, Whitney Cummings and many more. In addition to her current projects on the west coast, she is also the founder and Executive Director of the Nacogdoches Film + TV Board, which recruits film and television production to East Texas.

▣ Hollin Haley is a Los Angeles based actress and model. She graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a BA in theatre & dance in December 2015.

She has also received a certificate from the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London for contemporary theatre, and also from the London Academy of Dramatic Art for physical theatre.

Congratulations to this well-deserving NHS Alumni Association Distinguished Alumnus.
